

I am in a retail business where I make calls to customers. It has been my practice to only call when asked and avoid disturbing the life of the people being called upon. I in no way want Indiana's No Call Rule lessened. I can abide by it's rules as a Retail Business and I enjoy the quality of live with my family when home.